

PROJECT PROFILE

LADUE FIRE STATION
ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

A major PCS service provider contracted with the city of Ladue, Missouri to put PCS antennae inside the cupola atop the Ladue fire station.

The original cupola was removed and the tower was modified to accept a larger, fiberglass structure.

Fiberglass Specialties designed and fabricated the new cupola to meet the aesthetic needs of the city, and the technical needs of the PCS carrier.

antenna
inside!

"Manufacturers of Quality Architectural Fiberglass Products"